

BURGLAR SHOT FLEEING HOME

Prowler, Surprised By Woman, Is Brought Down By Policeman-Roomer.

A wavelet of crime swept over the city last night and early this morning. Three cases of housebreaking and four hold-ups were reported to the police. Two of the victims were slightly injured.

WOMAN BOUND AND GAGGED.
A young man entered the home of Mrs. David McInroy, 2910 Pennsylvania avenue southeast, last night, and after binding and gagging her, ransacked the house and stole $18 from a pocketbook. A suspect is being held at the Eleventh precinct, but Mrs. McInroy is in such a nervous condition that she has not yet been able to go to the station to identify him.

Mrs. McInroy heard the dogs in the rear yard barking loudly and went to investigate. She was seized from behind by a man who struggled with her until he pushed her into the kitchen. There he bound her hands and feet with a cloth and gagged her with a dark cloth he had in his pocket. While she lay helpless on the floor he ransacked the place. How long the man remained she does not know as she lapsed into unconsciousness after the struggle.

David McInroy, her husband, who is a cabinet manufacturer, returned home about 1 o'clock and discovered her.

NEGRO BURGLAR CAUGHT.

A colored housebreaker that entered the home of Mrs. V. J. Cosimano, 433 H street northwest, did not know, perhaps, that a policeman was a roomer at the house. Mrs. Cosimano found the man prowling about her room. Her screams attracted Policeman William A. Myers, of the Seventh precinct, who was asleep on an upper floor. The negro dashed down the stairs as the policeman poked his head out of a window and fired twice at the fleeing man. The negro ran through the house to the street.

Policeman L. T. Sheeley, of the Sixth precinct, was attracted by the shots and hurried to the house. He saw the man running down the street and gave chase. After they had gone about a square and a half the negro was captured.

At the Sixth precinct he gave his name as Charles E. Cook, fifty-two years old, 921 Fourth street northwest. He was found to have a bullet wound in the back near the left shoulder, and was taken to Emergency Hospital, where it was said his condition is critical.

ROBBED OF $144.
Ralph E. Robinson, 411 Pennsylvania avenue, was robbed of $144 and a watch at the point of a pistol in the rear of 422 Second street southwest and robbed of $140 and two checks. One of the negroes who held him up searched him while the other flourished a pistol in his face.

While standing at Third and C streets southwest early this morning, Michael O'Hern, 1832 Sixteenth street northwest, was robbed of $100, a watch and a gold ring. He was held up by a bullet wound in the back and after being assaulted was robbed of $12. One of the robbers struck O'Hern on the head with a blunt instrument. He is suffering from a scalp wound. After he had been treated at hospital he reported the hold-up to the Fourth precinct.

William T. Cunningham, who has an apartment at 1726 M street northwest, reported that he was held up about 11:30 last night at Seventh and De Sales streets northwest by a tall man who wore a soldier's uniform. He lost a watch valued at $25 and a ring valued at $50.

HOLD-UP ON M STREET.

On M street northwest, between Fifteenth and sixteenth streets, William J. Flynn, 1146 Fifteenth street northwest, was held up at the point of a pistol by two men, who stole a pocketbook containing $300 and $100. Flynn is secretary-treasurer of the National Traffic Service Corporation.

Louis Pappas, 406 1/2 Ninth street northwest, reported that while he was in a crowd at a carnival at Fifth street and Eleventh street last night an attempt was made to pick his pocket. Simon Feinberg, thirty-one years old, of Baltimore, was later arrested by Policeman H. D. Devine, of the Ninth precinct, and charged with robbery.

A boat house, owned by W. P. Bailey, at the west end of Benning bridge was broken into last night by a thief who stole $207.38. William P. Baker, of Huntington, Va., was arrested about an hour afterward by Motorcycle Policemen Little and Buckingham, of the Ninth precinct, who say he confessed to stealing the money. The contents found in his pocket, it is said.

Swanson Sees Harding.

Senator Swanson of Virginia headed a large delegation of Virginia business men and lawyers who called upon President Harding today to urge the appointment of Judge Edmund Vaden, Jr., to fill the vacancy on the circuit court bench caused by the death of Judge Pritchard, of North Carolina.

Mary Ann Tate To Be C. P. O. Boss' Secretary

Will Also Have Charge of Welfare Work Among Employees of Printery.

Miss Mary Ann Tate, of Tennessee, has been appointed secretary to George H. Carter, the Public Printer. It was announced today. In addition to her secretarial work, Miss Tate will also have charge of the welfare work among the women of the Government Printing Office, in recognition of her activity along similar lines with the local Young Women's Christian Association.

For the last seven years the Public Printer's new secretary has held a position as stenographer and assistant clerk to the joint committee on printing at the Capitol. She succeeds Joseph P. O'Leary.

Miss Tate is the daughter of Mrs. Anna Peck Tate, of 1433 Belmont street, and the late Allen S. Tate, who was a long time Assistant Attorney General for the Interior Department. Her family is one of historical note in the Republican annals of Tennessee, and known throughout the South as "The Tates of Tate Springs." Her father served in the famous Fourth Tennessee Cavalry, an organization which rendered gallant service to the Union in the Civil War.

Miss Tate has a wide circle of friends in the Government Printing Office, and is an adviser to a club of young business women here.

President Ends Hard Day by Shaking Hands With Over 2,000 D. A. R.

Something of President Harding's tolerance, good nature and capacity for that sort of punishment produced by pests and the unthinking kind of person was demonstrated yesterday when he waded through a mass of routine business, listened patiently to pleas for patronage, absorbed a lot of advice and then shook hands with more than 2,000 members of the D. A. R.

Aside from those on his set schedule for the day, he was halted during the rush to confer with several Cabinet members on pressing official questions, including the German plea for mediation. A Cabinet member always has the right of way, so when one calls the schedule is shattered.

One instance of the manner in which the President's program, much to the annoyance of his helpers, who endeavor to keep things running smoothly, was the call of a railroad brotherhood delegation which had been generously granted thirty minutes to set forth claims on a local matter in Missouri. Instead of talking only thirty minutes, the group remained one hour and fifteen minutes, with the result that the Executive offices became jammed with callers and those having set appointments.

Then along came the farm organizations, several hundred strong, and a Massachusetts party of eight-seers numbering about 100 men and women.

From 3:30 o'clock until 6 o'clock the President stood in line with Mrs. Harding and shook hands with the D. A. R. members, hundreds of whom had something besides a greeting to remark.

Altogether it was a tough day for the Chief Executive, but one of his right-hand men declared that "he's a bearcat for punishment."

PALAIS ROYAL DANCE WILL AID RELIEF FUND

A number of Government officials and business men have been invited to attend the dance to be held by the Palais Royal Beneficial Association at the Arlington Hotel, Fourteenth street and Park road tomorrow night. Everything has been done to make the dance a big success. The program committee announces that it has secured the finest orchestra, a band of 25 men and after being assaulted was robbed of $12. One of the robbers struck O'Hern on the head with a blunt instrument. He is suffering from a scalp wound. After he had been treated at hospital he reported the hold-up to the Fourth precinct.

William T. Cunningham, who has an apartment at 1726 M street northwest, reported that he was held up about 11:30 last night at Seventh and De Sales streets northwest by a tall man who wore a soldier's uniform. He lost a watch valued at $25 and a ring valued at $50.

The Palais Royal Beneficial Association has for its object the relief of any member who shall be detained from business by sickness and is covered entirely by the employees of the Palais Royal Department store. All receipts from the dance will go to the relief association.
